

What is Cellar54?

The “one-stop-shop” ethically sustained social media production studio located at the end of Saddler Gate in the heart of Derby’s Cathedral Quarter.

Our casual studio accommodates recording HD interviews and audio podcasts as well as presenting to camera green screen video.

Book an hour, drop in over lunch or after work and weekends on special arrangement. Our digital team of artists (over the page) can help you with all of your digital and social business requirements.
