

Press Release - A Ginsummer Night's Dream

EVENT - Saturday 12th August - Gate Open at 6.30 to the onsite Car Park.

A Shakespearean Garden Party and Magical Cabaret - devised by Stunt Girl Production inspired by the Royal Shakespeare Company's Midsummer Night's Dream. Taking place Saturday 12th August at East Bridgford Hill in Kirk Hill, Nottinghamshire.

Be greeted by Faery folk as they prepare a feast in the forgotten forest: wicked potions of fine gin, themed local ale, organic cider and a mouth-watering hog-roast!

The Lilac Wine might be too potent for our guests! Hosted in the exclusive, intimate setting of East Bridgford Hill. Master Alchemist, Theophilus of York - will bamboozle, baffle and amuse guests with the origins of Gin and wax lyrical with tales of alchemical zeal. All the while performances with fire and light, wistful walkabouts, woodland garden games, and wandering minstrels will delight and distract.

A magical evening filled with amusing muses.

A night where dreams collide...

Puck overhears our revels, and his mischief is abound magically transforms Bottom's head into that of an ass. The other mechanical are terrified and flee into the woods. When Titania wakes, the first creature she sees is Bottom and she falls rapturously in love with him. He wakes her with his terrible version of Lilac wine, which then, she sings to him with her minstrel.

Elsewhere in the forest, on the Hill in East Bridgford a party is already underway... laughter from the bar, the air filled with the aroma from Hog Roast.

Oberon, Titania and the fairies perform a blessing, and Puck asks the audience to forgive him, thereby breaking the spell!

All hosted by renowned storyteller and Nottingham Ghost Walk owner, the Mythical Gary Breinholt. Weaving Myths, legends and traditional folk-lore of the British Isles; telling tales of Green-men, Wild-men, Faerie Folk, Forest Folk and other worthies, all to the sound of the Wire-strung Harp, Whistle and Flute.

All tickets include - gin tasting, complimentary arrival drink, Hog Roast or vegetarian option and all entertainment for the evening. Please bring appropriate clothing for the weather at the time... it's a real woodland setting!
